WASHINGTON NEWS.

TWO LONG SESSIONS HELD.

The Legislative Appropriation Bill, the Immigration Bill and a Number of Others Pass the Senate, While the House Put in the Entire Day Discussing the Shipping Bill and Passes It at Midnight—Other Washington Dispatches.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 28.—In the senate yesterday the message of the president vetoing the bill establishing a record and pension office of the war department was received.

Papers supporting the claim of William H. Clegg to a seat in the senate from the state of Idaho for the term beginning March 4 next, these for which the credentials of Mr. Dubois are already in file, were presented and filed.

The Nicaragua canal bill was laid aside for this session. The legislative appropriation bill was passed with a number of amendments, and the immigration bill, together with a number of other bills, were taken from the calendar and passed.

Among those that were taken up and passed were the following:

For the allowance of certain claims for stores and supplies taken and used by the United States army, as reported by a list of claims under the provisions of the act of March 3, 1878, known as the Bowman act, with amendments.

To authorize the Rapid and Bridge company to construct a bridge across Red river at or near Alexandria, La., for the relief of Hart county, Ky., and for the relief of David H. Russell.

The senate then began consideration of the Indian appropriation bill, it being read with the committee amendments, subject to matters of importance being passed over.

Amendments were offered and discussed until 10 o'clock and was finally laid over.

The senate then proceeded to consideration of bills on the calendar. The first bill taken up one providing that railroad land grants shall not convey the title to coal or other mineral lands. It was championed by Mr. Sanders, and opposed by Messrs. Edmunds and Platt as a proposition to annul existing rights. Finally Mr. Edmunds suggested that there was no quorum present and as the roll showed that there were only thirty-nine senators in the chamber, five less than a quorum, the sergeant-at-arms was directed to request the attendance of absentees.

A motion to adjourn was defeated. Yeas, 12; nays, 20.

All business was suspended for more than half an hour, when the motion to adjourn was renewed and agreed to; and at 11:10, the senate adjourned.

House Proceedings.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 28.—The house devoted the entire day to debate on the shipping bill, and began voting on amendments to the measure at 5 o'clock. This was continued in continuous session until after 11 o'clock, when the third reading of the bill was ordered by a vote of 147 yeas to 145 nays.

Mr. Cannon, of Illinois, moved that the bill be recommitted to the committee on merchant marine and fisheries, with instructions to that committee to report back forthwith a bill, similar to the senate bill on the same subject, to provide for ocean mail service between the United States and foreign ports. This bill is identical with the substitute which Chandler, of Massachusetts, desired to offer, except that it eliminates the free ship clause of the latter measure.

The speaker ruled that Cannon's motion was in order, and put the previous question on the motion, which was ordered: Yeas 125, nays 108.

The question then followed on Mr. Cannon's motion to recommit with instructions, and it was carried: Yeas 143, nays 142.

During the roll call there was great confusion on the floor. The first call showed that there was no party feeling involved in the question, and Republicans and Democrats alike voted as they desired. But then began a series of changes of votes, the Republicans who had voted in the negative changing their votes to the affirmative, and the Democrats who had voted in the affirmative recording their votes in the negative.

Twice had the vote to be recapitulated before its accuracy could be relied upon. The motion was finally announced, and immediately Mr. Farquhar, of New York, rose and reported back the bill with the instructions.

The bill having been read, a fusillade of points of order was directed from the Democratic side.

The speaker overruled these points of order and the senate bill as amended was passed: yeas 110, nays 120.

Farquhar moved that a conference be ordered, pending which Bland, of Missouri, moved an adjournment. Lost—yeas 71, nays 111.

Pending action on Farquhar's motion, the house at midnight adjourned.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 28.—The senate in secret session yesterday afternoon confirmed the following nominations: Henry W. Blair, of New Hampshire, minister to China; Truxton Beale, of California, minister to Persia. Consuls: J. A. Anderson, of Kansas, Cairo; Edmund Shaw, of Indian territory, Assiniboine; H. M. Hard, of New York, Clifton, Ont.; J. V. Long, of Pennsylvania, Florence; Selah Merrill, of Massachusetts, Jerusalem; P. C. Hanna, of Iowa, Lagayra; W. S. Stanley, of Wisconsin, Picton, N. S.; S. H. M. Myers, of Iowa, St. Gall; A. E. Neill, of Maine, St. Stephens, N. B.; W. W. Apperson, of Kansas, Vera Cruz.

A number of army, navy and marine corps promotions were also confirmed.

Text of the Immigration Bill.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 28.—The immigration bill, passed by the senate yesterday, provides for the exclusion from admission into the United States of all insane persons, paupers, or persons likely to become paupers, persons suffering from loathsome or contagious disease, persons convicted of crimes involving moral turpitude, polygamists, contracted laborers. It is provided that persons convicted of political offenses shall not be excluded, notwithstanding the offense may be designated as a felony, etc., involving moral turpitude, by the laws of the country from which the offenders come. The present contract law is amended with a view to making it more binding, but minor provisions are amended, and the provisions of the contract law act.

Persons bringing into the United States by vessel or otherwise any alien not lawfully entitled to enter, is deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and is liable by a fine not exceeding $1,000.

All aliens who come unlawfully to the United States shall be immediately sent back on the vessel by which they are brought, the cost of their maintenance and their return to be borne by the owners of the vessels on which the aliens came, and if any owner of such vessel shall refuse to receive back on board such alien, or neglect to return them, he shall be punished by a fine of not less than $300 for each offense, and the vessel shall not have clearance from any port in the United States while the fine is unpaid.

The bill also provides that no steamship or transportation company or owners of vessels shall directly or through agents, either by writing, printing, or oral representations, solicit, invite or encourage the immigration of any alien into the United States except by ordinary commercial letters, circulars, advertisements, or oral representations, stating the salings of their vessels and the terms and facilities of transportation thereon, and for a violation of this provision any such steamship or transportation company, and any such owners of vessels, and the agents by them employed, shall be subjected to the penalties imposed by the present law.

The Postal Subsidy Bill.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 28.—The substitute for the postal subsidy bill, passed by the house last night, merely authorizes the postmaster general to contract for not less than five nor more than ten years with American citizens for carrying mails in American steamships between the United States and foreign ports. The Dominion of Canada excepted to subscribe and promote the postal and commercial interests of the United States—the mail service to be distributed equitably among the ports of the Atlantic, Pacific and Gulf of Mexico, and the vessels contracted with be of American construction and officered by American citizens.

Huston and His Successor.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 28.—It is generally accepted here as a fact that United States Treasurer Huston has resigned and that J. A. Lemeke will be appointed his successor. None of the parties interested will authorize any statement on the subject, and the truth of the rumors cannot be either officially denied or affirmed. The reasons assigned for Mr. Huston's resignations are both political and social dissatisfaction with the administration in that he and his family were not properly recognized in either respect.

Attended His First Cabinet Meeting.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 28.—Secretary Foster for the first time represented the treasury department at the cabinet meeting yesterday. All the members of the cabinet except Secretary Blaine were present. Secretary Foster on his return from the cabinet meeting was refused admittance to the treasury department. A friend with him explained to the watchman that the gentleman with him was the secretary of the treasury and he was admitted.

Postoffice Appropriations.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 27.—Senator Plumb reported the postoffice appropriation bill last night from the committee on appropriations. The aggregate of the bill is increased $25,000, the principal changes being an increase from $50,000,000 to $51,000,000 for the compensation of postoffice clerks and reductions from $295,000 to $260,000 for preventing mail depredations and from $50,000 to $40,000 for purchase of cancelling stamps, repairing, etc.

Minister to China.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 28.—The president sent to the senate Friday the nomination of Henry W. Blair, of New Hampshire, to be envoy extraordinary and minister plenipotentiary of the United States to China. The nomination was confirmed.

Base Ball Club in Trouble.

NEW YORK, Feb. 28.—Deputy Sheriff McInnis has received execution against the New York base ball club (limited), on the judgment for $14,117 obtained some weeks ago by Garrett H. Haight, and has seized the lease of the grounds at Eight avenue and One Hundred and Fifty-first street and levied also upon other personal property of the concern.

Horrible Death in a Freight Wreck.

BURLINGTON, Iowa, Feb. 28.—At Edgelyville yesterday Engineer Jesse Damp met a horrible death in the Rock Island freight wreck. The tender of his engine was forced into the cab, pinning him against the boiler head. The steam gauge broke, allowing a stream of water to pour over the poor fellow's body until it was literally cooked.

A Daughter's Justifiable Deed.

ST. LOUIS, Feb. 28.—At Pine Bluff, Ark., last evening, Frank Rafus, a negro, came home drunk and made several ineffectual attempts to fire a pistol at his wife and daughter. The latter picked up an ax and dealt him a terrible blow in the breast. Rafus' dead body was found in the woods a short distance from the house.

CONDITION OF TRADE

There is Not Much Change From Last Week's Report.

A LITTLE MORE DULLNESS.

Slight Stringency in the Money Market and Complaint of Slow Collections. Effects of the Coke Strike—Business Failures of the Week Show a Small Decrease.

NEW YORK, Feb. 28.—R. G. Dun & Company's weekly review of trade says: There is not much change in the condition of trade, but there is a little more dullness in the south and in the northwest, with a little more stringency in money markets and complaint about slowness of collections. Collections are slow at St. Louis, Denver and Omaha; easy and prompt in dry goods, but not so prompt as before in clothing and boots and shoes at Chicago; about average at Kansas City, and satisfactory at St. Paul, but somewhat slow at Detroit, while at Cleveland much good commercial paper is renewed. At Philadelphia the case is about good collections in clothing and dry goods.

The money markets, though still generally called easy, give signs of steady approach to stringency, and at Omaha is quite close, at Milwaukee, in active demand, and at Cleveland rather stringent. At Boston, some scarcity of loanable funds is noticed, and rates are firm and higher. Southern reports generally note a fair demand, but no improvement in trade, while northwestern reports are less favorable as to the state of business. At Denver business is better and at Milwaukee, and no change is noticed at Kansas City and St. Paul, but it is only fair at Omaha; not so strong at St. Louis, quiet at Cincinnati and only fair in manufactures at Detroit. At Cleveland trade is fairly good, but brisk in hardware and manufactured iron, and the strike strengthens pig and manufactured iron at Pittsburgh. But at Chicago, there is some decrease in receipts of nearly all products except condensed meats and wool.

Business at eastern cities has been irregular. The wool trade is strengthening by comparative scarcity, and prices of some grades are higher. Trade in cottons is dull because the southern demand has dropped remarkably. In rubber goods trade is unsettled. The glass trade is fair at Pittsburg and light at Philadelphia. The coke strike has produced more inquiry for pig iron and for nearly all products of iron and steel. Coal is dull. No change is observed in the minor metals.

The business failures occurring throughout the country during the last seven days number, for the United States 236, and for Canada 34, or a total of 270, as against a total of 297 last week and 285 the week previous to the last. For the corresponding week of last year the figures were 301, representing 357 failures in the United States and 44 in Canada.

FIGHTING ACROSS THE LINE.

DANBURY, Conn., Feb. 28.—Steps have already been taken by the officials here to make application for requisition papers in the case of John W. Colburn, charged with stealing a $500 horse and carriage from the barn of William Thompson, Tuesday night, and who was arrested at Brewster and now lies in the county jail at Carmel, N. Y.

It is probable that requisition will not be granted by Governor Hill, as he refused to issue papers in the case of Fardon, the Waterbury burglar. If this is the case it is said the prisoner will undoubtedly be brought to Connecticut without a requisition, and the officer who brings him across the line will rely upon Governor Bulkeley to refuse a requisition to have him (the officer) taken back to New York state on the charge of taking the prisoner from the state.

Directors Must Own Stock.

CHICAGO, Feb. 28.—A local paper says: A significant section of the "Revised rules and regulations for voting" for directors, which will be presented at some early meeting of the world's fair directory, provides that no name shall be printed on the ballots that is not backed with certificates for at least 1,000 shares of stock or proxies for same. As these revised rules will be in force at the next meeting of stockholders, April 4, the section specified is full of meaning.

Yuma Deserted.

YUMA, Ariz., Feb. 28.—The water is still running over Piere bridge and the river is still rising. The people have abandoned all their horses and have gone to the hills. The telegraph office is now operated from the Southern Pacific hotel, which stands on a high point.

Invalid Lady Burned to Death.

PANAMA, Ky., Feb. 28.—Mrs. R. H. Durey burned to death at Moscow, this state, by her clothes catching on fire. She was an invalid, and was alone at the time. When found she was dying, and had but a remnant of clothing upon her. Her death followed soon.

Insanities Man Worked to Death.

ST. PAUL, Feb. 28.—Frederick DeHaas, of DeHaas & Vandervelde, managers of the Germania Life Insurance company in this city, shot himself at his residence at 930 yesterday. Temporary insanity, caused by overwork, is thought to be the cause of the deed.

The Evangelist is Free.

LOUISVILLE, Feb. 28.—At Rochester, Ind., yesterday, Mrs. Maria B. Woodworth, the noted female evangelist, was granted a divorce on account of the adultery of her husband with a colored girl of this city named Gertie Smith.

AFFAIRS IN HONOLULU.

Advises Brought by the United States Steamer Charleston.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 28.—The United States steamer Charleston arrived here from Honolulu yesterday afternoon.

On the 16th inst. Her Majesty received at the Palace Rear Admiral Brown and staff, of the Charleston; Capt. Shepard, of the Mohican, and United States Minister Stevens. The latter and the admiral addressed the queen in congratulatory terms on her accession. Previous to the Charleston's departure swarms of natives brought bananas, oranges, pineapples and other tributes to Admiral Brown. Many of the Hawaiian women in depositing their offerings kissed the admiral's hands.

An organization of native and foreign-born has been formed to secure the erection of a monument to the late king in the Palace square. The plan is that the monument shall be a national token and it is proposed to solicit subscriptions.

At noon, Monday, the day after the royal funeral, the Charleston and the Mohican fired a royal salute of twenty-one guns each in honor of Liliuokalani's accession.

The Honolulu Bulletin, in an editorial says: "The United States government has set us a broad example as to the National treatment of a National question, which has already touched our hearts and found us in closer ties of brotherhood to a great nation whose friendship we honor and whose sympathy honors us."

When the cruiser left Honolulu there was a deadlock between the queen and the cabinet. The queen asked the cabinet to resign and they refused. The house of nobles assembled to hear the queen name her successor, Princess Kaiulani, but as the cabinet would have to ratify the appointment, and the queen would not allow them this privilege, the house had to adjourn without doing anything.

The present cabinet consists of J. A. Cummings, minister of foreign affairs; C. W. Spencer, minister of the interior; Godfrey Brown, minister of finance and A. T. Peterson, attorney general. The question has arisen as to whether the present ministers will survive the king by whom they were appointed, or whether their term of office terminated with his death. The queen has applied to the supreme court to oust the ministry. Everything was reported quiet at the islands and there was no fear of any trouble.

WITH $6,000,000 CAPITAL.

The Big Type Foundries of the Country About to Consolidate Their Interests.

CHICAGO, Feb. 28.—After negotiations which have been pending a year or more, the big type foundries of the country have about effected a consolidation of their interests. The Chicago type foundries to go into the scheme are Marder, Luz & Company and the Union type foundry and possibly Barnhart Brothers & Spindler, though the latter firm has not as yet signed the option. However, they are practically as good as identified with the new concern. The capital involved is reported as $6,000,000. The principal organizers are Edward F. C. Young, president of the First National bank of Jersey City, and Charles DeBart Brower, a prominent New York lawyer. The establishment of the uniform prices and the protection of the printer are said to be the chief reasons for the consolidation of the thirty odd type foundries. McKellar, Smith & Jourdan, of Philadelphia, the largest firm of type foundries in the United States were among the first to put their shoulders to the wheel. James Connors & Sons, of New York, Farmer, Little & Company, of New York, and Palmer & Ray, of San Francisco, are also prominently to the fore.

Wholesale cutting of the price of type has been the rule of late, and owing to this, plants to printers have been decreasing in value, enabling new firms to put in entirely new plants at half the cost of plants laid in before the demoralization of prices.

Referring to the matter yesterday President Brower, of the Union Type foundry, said: "The extremities to which this price war has brought foundries and printers are such that some remedy is forced upon us, and while every foundry, without exception, refuses to go into any trust, the harm being done to printers is on such an enormous scale that the foundries were compelled to consent to a consolidation. This consent was practically unanimous as no founder seemed to wish to bring about the ruin of his fellows any more than he did the undermining of credit of the printers."

No date has been fixed for the time of consolidation, but the thing is surely going through, as the formal written consents of one-half of the founders have already been obtained. Next month will probably bring forth developments.

No Votes Cast.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Feb. 28.—A trace has been arranged until Tuesday in the senatorial contest and many of the members of the legislature have left for their homes. On the 13th ballot yesterday the eighty members present did not answer when their names were called and the speaker announced that no votes had been cast. The joint assembly then adjourned.

Cremated in a Burning Building.

SEDALIA, Mo., Feb. 28.—The home of an old lady named Mary Dummie was discovered on fire early this morning. Before the neighbors could reach the building it had burned to the ground. Mrs. Dummie and a 2-year-old grandchild, named Haywood, were burned to death.

EVENING BULLETIN.

DAILY, "EXCEPT SUNDAY."
ROSSER & McCARTHY,
Proprietors.

SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 28, 1891.

The end of Reedism is drawing near. The Fifty-first Congress will step down and out next Wednesday evening.

It will be two years next Wednesday since the Republicans took charge of the National Government, and they have knocked that big surplus silly.

They are lining boys at Lexington now for attempting to board moving trains. That's the way to handle such foods, and it will put a stop to such dangerous practice.

Dogs killed between sixty and one hundred sheep near Millersburg recently, but the farmers up there would no doubt do all they could to "retire" a Legislator who would attempt to pass a law taxing the curs to pay for the damage they do.

The annual fight for Mayor at Lexington has commenced. Two candidates are already in the field—Editor H. T. Duncan, of the Daily Press, and ex-State Treasurer S. G. Sharp. A lively contest is anticipated, and everybody knows what that means.

The President has approved the act for a public building at Richmond. As we remarked before, Maysville has more need of a public building than many of the cities that have been thus specially favored. And it oughtn't be such a difficult matter to secure one now.

Hon. J. B. McCleary stands pretty solid not only with his constituents but with his colleagues of the Kentucky delegation. At a recent caucus his fellow-Representatives from this State decided to support him for Speaker of the House in the Fifty-second Congress.

BULKLEY, the hold-over Governor of Connecticut, knows well enough he has no right to the office, and he no doubt realizes he will get his walking papers soon, as he has been drawing monthly the salary due the Governor, when the custom all along has been to draw the salary quarterly. The Democrats of that State should "turn this rascal out" and then make him "shell out" the money that clearly belongs to another individual.

The Democrats of Connecticut elected State Comptroller last fall by 1,600 majority. This was conceded even by the opposing party, and yet the gang of Republican tricksters who had charge of the State Government kept this legally-elected Comptroller out of his office for months. But they have at last been forced to stand back and allow him to assume the duties of his position. These tricksters' right to the positions they hold is in dispute, and the prospects are that they will soon be driven from the offices they have dishonored.

A lady from Manchester, who was in town Thursday, said she was surprised on her first visit here not long ago to find such handsome buildings and large business houses. She added that she was also surprised to find she could buy goods in Maysville just as cheap as at Cincinnati.

If Maysville merchants would just make a determined effort they could soon work up a big trade on both sides of the river between here and Vaneburg. The daily packet and the C. & O. trains furnish these people ample facilities for reaching this city, and judicious advertising along the route ought to attract a good trade. Show the people it is to their advantage to come here and they will come.

The vote by which the Direct Tax bill passed the House this week was "neither sectional nor partisan," says an exchange. A Democratic House passed the measure two years ago, but it was vetoed.

When this tax was levied in 1861, some of the States paid their portion in full, others paid part of their portion and some did not pay at all. The unpaid tax still remains charged against those States on the books of the Internal Revenue Bureau. The National Government is collecting more revenue now than is necessary for an economical administration, and has no need of this unpaid tax; so the only way to place the States on an equal footing is to refund to each the amount it paid. This is no doubt the view many Democrats took of it, and there is some justice in it.

At Seymour, Ind., a butcher killed a large and very fat cow, in the paunch of which he found a silver half dollar, several small bones, a lot of needles and pins, over a quarter of a pound of horse shoe and other nails of varying sizes, and several other articles. The cow was young and healthy.

And of course the cow was fat; butchers never kill any other kind.

This is an item of importance to the farmer and stockman. It will be observed that the animal, although a young one, was very large. Hereafter, when pastures become dried up by the burning rays of the summer sun, all you will have to do to keep your cows nice and fat and make them strong and large is to feed them a few bones, needles, pins and old nails, throwing in, of course, a silver half dollar or two.

It is a matter of regret that the investigation of this case at Seymour was not more extended. Doubtless, a thorough test of the milk of this cow would have shown it to be a fine tincture of iron—a most excellent tonic. And the value of such a discovery could hardly be estimated. Every fellow who owns a cow could, by feeding her a few pounds of old nails, provide himself hereafter with an almost inexhaustible supply of iron tonic, in the lactated fluid.

Such a discovery, however, would have been a serious blow to the drug business.

Congress is drawing to a close, and as usual, every member is pulling to get some pet measure through. The Courier-Journal's correspondent says: "Mr. Paynter has six or eight local bills that he would like to pass, but he would be happy to compromise on one or two."

"That 'Bus Accident."

Editor Bulletin: On February 16, 1891, I was going to Maysville in my buggy, with the curtains up, and wrapped up, and about 80 to 100 rods below Mr. Wm. Newell's gate, driving along in a moderate gait on the left-hand side of the road. I heard some one calling behind me. I turned around to see what it was, and about the same instant the horse struck my buggy, knocking me wheel off and upsetting the buggy. When I got out I asked if the horses were running off. The horse in the lead of the "bus" was lying on the pike, and I thought he was dead, as it was some time before he got up. There was plenty of room for the "bus" to pass my buggy on the right. I went to Carr & Tolle's office, where I met Thomas King, the driver, and where we talked about the accident, afterwards going down town when Thomas King followed me. I told him that I would come back to Carr & Tolle's office at 1 o'clock, which I did, and said to him, owing to the relationship, that if he would repair my buggy I would say no more about it; and he offered to give me $10. I said if he would leave $20 with Carr & Tolle that I would have the buggy repaired and return the balance to him. With his consent Carr & Tolle gave me the $20. If he received a severe cursing I did not hear it, but I will say that R. A. Carr talked very kindly to him. The costs in repairing the buggy was $5.10. The balance, a check on the First National Bank for $14.90, was sent to him. L. H. LONG.

We know nothing about the accident, which the letter from L. H. Long explains. Thomas King was driving our "bus" and Monday morning, February 16th, he came in the office and asked for a settlement, which we promptly gave him, taking his receipt in full for same. Tom made being a good boy, did not receive "a severe cursing" from us. Respectfully, CARR & TOLLE.

Railroad News.

It is again reported the L. and N. is dickering for the Eastern Division of the N. N. and M. V., and will buy if the price is not too steep.

The Flemingsburg Times-Democrat: "It is understood that the C. and S. E. Railroad is to be sold in front of the United States Court room in Louisville, about the middle of April."

C. and O. engine No. 71, pulling the F. E. V., left Charleston, W. Va., the other day twenty minutes late and arrived at Huntington just two minutes ahead of time. The run was made at the rate of a mile every sixty-two seconds. There were two hills to climb and one trestle to slow for.

The annual report of the Railroad Commissioners of Kentucky, soon to be made, says: "The total mileage for the State at the close of the year in round numbers is 3,000 miles. The total number of miles of track laid in the United States for the year was 6,081 in a total of forty-six States. Kentucky shows up as tenth in these forty-six States in point of increased mileage. This is a good showing, but there are some discouraging figures. Nearly twenty counties in the State have not a line of railroad in them. They are Butler, Clay, Clinton, Elliott, Floyd, Harlan, Jackson, Knott, Leslie, Letcher, Magoffin, Martin, Metcalfe, Monroe, Morgan, Owen, Owsley, Perry, Pike, Robertson and Russell.

The gross earnings of all the roads operated in the State for the year were $15,687,213, an increase over the preceding year of nearly $1,500,000. The net earnings of the roads of the State for the year were $6,374,475, representing an increase for the year of $778,752, or 13.7 per cent. The figures are taken from the reports of but twenty-eight roads.

Gardeners, Preserve This for Future Reference.

The Rural New Yorker says: "The most perfectly preserved lot of cabbages that we have ever seen so late in the season were placed together in a northern exposure, roots up, on the soil. They were then covered lightly with six inches of marsh hay. Over them was placed a slanting roof which merely serves to protect them from rain and snow. These cabbages are as green and fresh-looking as they were the day they were taken from the field. Treated in the usual way, that is, covered with soil, the cabbages become blanched and predisposed to decay."

COUNTY OFFICIALS.

Additional Provisions Adopted by the Con. Con.—Offices of Sheriff and Jailor May Be Consolidated

Section four of the chapter on ministerial and executive officers for counties and districts reads as follows, as it was adopted by the Constitutional convention:

"Section four. No person shall be eligible to the offices mentioned in this article who is not, at the time, twenty-four years old, a citizen of the State of Kentucky, and who has not resided two years next preceding the election in the State, and one year in the county for which he is a candidate. No person shall be eligible to the office of Commonwealth's Attorney, unless he shall have been a licensed practicing attorney for four years. No person shall be eligible to the office of Clerk, unless he shall have procured from a Judge of the Court of Appeals, or a Judge of the Circuit Court, a certificate that he has been examined by the Clerk of his court under his supervision, and that he is qualified for the office for which he is a candidate."

Section five was adopted after being amended so as to conform to the section abolishing the office of Commonwealth's Attorney, and making the County Attorney the Prosecuting Attorney. It provides that the Prosecuting Attorney and Circuit Court Clerk shall be elected at the same time as the Circuit Judge, the County Attorney, Clerk, Surveyor, Coroner, and Jailor to be elected at the same time and in the same manner as Judge of the County Court.

Other sections adopted on this subject are as follows:

"Section six. A Sheriff shall be elected in each county by the qualified voters thereof, whose term of office shall be four years, and until his successor be qualified; but no Sheriff shall be re-eligible or act as deputy for the succeeding term; nor shall any Deputy Sheriff be eligible to the office of Sheriff for the term next succeeding the one during which he may have served as such deputy. Provided, however, that the first election of Sheriffs under this Constitution shall be at the regular election in 1892, they to hold office for only two years."

"Section seven. A Constable shall be elected in each Justice's district by the qualified voters thereof, at the same time and for the same term as the Sheriff, and shall possess the same qualifications. The jurisdiction of Constables shall be co-extensive with the county in which they may reside."

"Section ten. There shall be elected in each county, at the same time and for the same term that the Judge of the County Court is elected, a County Assessor, who shall have power to appoint such assistants as may be necessary and proper."

"Section eleven. The General Assembly may at any time consolidate the offices of Jailor and Sheriff in any county or counties as they shall deem most expedient; but in the event that consolidation be made, the office of Sheriff shall be retained, and he shall be required to perform the duties of Jailor."

Sections 8 and 9 were stricken out. An amendment to section 11 creating the office of County Treasurer was voted down.

"Section 12. The fees of county officers shall be regulated by law. In counties or cities having a population of 75,000 inhabitants or more, the Clerks of the respective courts thereof (except the Clerk of the City Court), the Marshals, the Sheriffs and Jailors shall be paid out of the State Treasury, by salary to be fixed by law, which together with all the expenses of operating their office, shall not exceed 75 per centum of the fees collected by said officers respectively, and paid into the treasury. Provided, That the salaries mentioned herein which are to be paid out of the public treasury shall not be increased or diminished during their respective terms of office. But no such officer shall receive a salary exceeding that of the Judges of the Circuit Court."

Our Lady of Lent.

Of course, I don't, care you well understand, I do not object to your holding my hand, but Harry, my boy, I must thrilly insist that the line shall be drawn on my being kissed: For kisses, I'm sure, are luxuries, dear. Which we must forego at this time of year: Because it is Lent, don't you know and—Good night! Why, Harry, how could you? That wasn't right! —(Washington Star.)

OUR NEIGHBORS.

WASHINGTON. A prosperous saloon means destruction to boys. R. C. Bland has been visiting relatives in Missouri for some weeks. Jacob Roser bought a pair of work mules of A. R. Gluscock for $220. Wheat looks as well as we ever saw it at this time of the year. The whisky business is not only not a necessity anywhere, but it is a positive nuisance everywhere. John Hunter, of Bourbon County, bought a six-year-old horse mule of James N. Kirk at $160. Last season the common yellow flowers were out in full bloom the 5th of February. This year they are scarcely out of the ground as yet. The farmers are preparing for a very large acreage of tobacco this season. That St. Louis preacher took the correct measurement of those who engage in dancing. It is worthy only of Indians or hoboes. Charles F. Taylor, auctioneer, sold Mrs. M. A. McCall's farm of 100 acres, February 25th, to Patrick Maher, of this neighborhood, at $110 per acre. Stock and other things add at good prices.

Had It All His Own Way for Awhile. SAVANNAH, Ga., Feb. 28. — After twenty years of continued swindling, by which he has managed to defraud firms in Georgia and other states out of amounts aggregating $50,000, A. J. Dickson, of Mershon, is now on trial in the United States court here for using the mails for fraudulent purposes. According to the testimony he would send for a small bill of goods and refer to a fictitious firm at Mershon, where he served as postmaster. When the letters of inquiry came he would answer them giving himself a first-class business rating. The first bill he would pay as a bait. Then he would order a large lot of goods, for which the pay never came.

Of all the deadly things that war Against our peace and kill us, The worst and deadliest by far— As proved by the researches of scientific men in Germany, France and several towns in Michigan, who have made the matter a study and found out by experimenting with guinea pigs and other cheap animals how to cure almost anything except wars and catarrhs— Is merely a building. —Chicago Tribune.

SEVERAL years ago Chamberlain & Co., of Des Moines, Iowa, commenced the manufacture of a cough syrup, believing it to be the most prompt and reliable preparation yet produced for coughs, colds and croup; that the public appreciate true merit, and in time it was certain to become popular. Over three hundred thousand bottles of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy are now sold each year, and it is recognized as "the best made," where ever known. It will cure a severe cold in less time than any other treatment. For sale by Power & Reynolds, druggists.

MRS. N. B. SMITH.

She Passes Away Very Suddenly from an Attack of Heart Disease

Many of the happy homes of Maysville and surrounding country have been darkened the past week by Death's somber shadow, and another one was added to the list last night.

Mrs. America Smith, wife of Mr. N. B. Smith, the stonemason, passed away at 2 a. m., at the family residence on Fifth street.

Mrs. Smith was taken ill last November, but it was only in the past week or so that her condition became very critical. The family's physician pronounced her trouble heart disease. Shortly after 12 o'clock last night she became worse, and passed peacefully away an hour or so later.

Deceased's maiden name was Thompson, and she was between fifty-five and sixty years of age. Her husband and several children survive her. Among her sons are Mr. John Smith, the cigar manufacturer, and Mr. Ben Smith, the stonemason. One daughter is the wife of Mr. James Faulkner, of Flemingsburg. Mrs. Smith leaves one sister, Mrs. College, of Vanceburg, mother of Rev. John College.

The funeral services will be held Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the family residence. Deceased was a faithful member of the M. E. Church, and the pastor, Rev. Thomas Hanford, D. D., will conduct the funeral services.

Those who have united with the church during the week will make a public profession of their faith to-morrow morning at the services commencing at eleven o'clock. Preaching by Rev. J. P. Dawson to-morrow evening at 7:30. All persons cordially invited to attend these services.

A Lively Farce at the National.

One of the funniest farces seen at the National Theatre this season, says an exchange, was that played by Ferguson and Mack's company. The names of these popular players and others drew an audience that crowded the house. "McCarthy's Mishaps" is the title, which suggests the embarrassments of the convivial Irishman, who is fascinated with ballet girls, goes to a picnic and a reception and through many other scenes of excitement, creating continuous mirth wherever he goes. Barney Ferguson realizes all the possibilities of this role. Other characterizations almost equally provocative of uproarious laughter are taken in hand by well known artists. The scenes are interspersed with plenty of song and dance diversissements and other specialties. All the favorite players met with enthusiastic receptions on the instant of their appearance and fully met their admirers' expectations.

This fun-making farce will be rendered at the opera house next Monday night. Tickets now on sale at Nelson's.

The Cincinnati papers say Mr. G. B. Galbraith, of this county, was arrested there yesterday and placed under $500 bond to answer a charge of obtaining property under false pretenses. MISS KATE WARDLOW, of Neville, O., will regret the rest of her days that she ever paid any attention to a "Personal," in the Cincinnati Enquirer. Her husband wasn't her husband. Another woman had prior and better claims on him.

Ironox papers are indignant because of a sensational representative of the Cincinnati Post, who put Ironox under the water daily during the recent flood, through the columns of his paper. The pistol-user is a nephew of Jos. Forsyth, who participated in a shooting scrape at the fair grounds last August.

Colonel Wilson, himself a practical and experienced tobacco grower and judge, has also prepared an article on "Barley Tobacco—Its Culture, Curing, Assorting and Handling," which those not familiar with barley tobacco will find of considerable value.

The sale by Mrs. King, of Corpus Christi, the "cattle-queen" of Texas, of 15,000 two-year-old steers, is probably the largest single order for cattle ever filled in Texas. The consideration was $82,000. Mrs. King's ranch is worth $900,000.

Of the 80,993 cattle received at Kansas City, during January, 1891, about a third, or 29,997 were cows. Of the 80,993 head, 56,630 were from Kansas, 18,503 from Missouri and 2,860 from Nebraska, Indian Territory, Texas, Colorado and New Mexico.

A EUROPEAN WAR.

Trouble Brewing Between France and Germany.

THE RESULT OF A ROYAL VISIT.

The Emperor of Germany Will Demand an Explanation From the French Government of the Hostility Shown His Mother in Paris—Other Foreign News.

LONDON, Feb. 28.—According to a Berlin dispatch the treatment of the Empress Frederick in Paris is arousing a very bitter feeling in the court circles, and the animosity displayed toward France is deeper than it has been in many years. This is exactly what was predicted in France as likely to happen, when the kaiser permitted an intimation to go out of his own intention to visit Paris. It was then stated by well-informed French authority that a German imperial visit would be more likely to hasten than to prevent a European war.

It is said that the kaiser has resolved to demand satisfaction from the French government for the annoyances and hostility to which his mother has been subjected in Paris. The latest advice from Paris show that feeling runs very high in that city, and it might be dangerous for that government to offer even the semblance of an apology to the kaiser, and it is not at all likely that any explanation whatever will be given.

Labor Troubles in England.

LONDON, Feb. 28.—Three hundred union dockers applied for work at the Albert docks on the shipping federation's terms. A number of the applications have been granted.

The dockers' union has removed its boycott from one of three lines upon which the ban was placed. The federation insists upon its removal from all the lines before negotiations begin for a settlement.

A conference has been held between the coal owners and miners at Durham, but the former refused to make any concessions, and the strike is still in progress.

The strike of dockers at Hull has begun. The federation has no difficulty in obtaining a full quota of men.

All the dock laborers at Aberdeen have struck. The struggle threatens to be a severe one.

Enforcing the Anti-Jewish Laws.

LONDON, Feb. 28.—One of the Jewish families expelled from Novgorod has arrived at Willenberg, Prussia, near the Russian border. They report the total number of families expelled from the city of Novgorod are 617, and from the rural districts adjoining forty-nine. The family whose name is Kaplan, give a hideous account of the suffering caused by the enforcement of the anti-Jewish laws. One Jewish merchant was found dead with his wife and five children, also dead, in their house where they had lived for many years. It is supposed they had taken poison. In the merchant's hand was grasped the notice of banishment. The property of the exiles is being bought up for a song by Russian speculators.

Labor Day in Germany.

BERLIN, Feb. 28.—Notwithstanding the resolution of the German socialists that the first Sunday in May, and not the 1st of May, ought to be celebrated as labor's holiday, this year, the workmen of Austria have determined to adhere to the first day of May as the date. The majority of employers in Germany promised, last year, to allow the celebration of May Day by their hands.

Jews Coming by the Steamer Land. LONDON, Feb. 28.—The friends of the Russian Jews are much stirred up over the growing disposition to prevent further immigration of that class into England. It is stated that passages are being bought by the steamer land, for the transfer of Russian Jews to the United States.

The Pope Wants a Pointer.

ROME, Feb. 28.—During the fetes next week celebrating the pope's coronation, his holiness will receive the members of the Sacred college, but will not refer to political questions, as he desires to first observe the course of the new ministry.

A Number of Heads Broken.

LONDON, Feb. 28.—There was some rioting in Alderdeen yesterday, growing out of the strike in the shipping trade. The police charged the mob repeatedly, and a number of heads were broken.

DISSOLVING A TRUST.

The National Harvester Company May Take Such Action.

BUFFALO, Feb. 28.—A secret meeting of the National Harvester company, is being held at the Iroquois hotel here. It is surmised that the conference is called to consider the advisability of dissolving the trust, which has become considerably embarrassed by its defeat in the action brought by the Clipper Chilled Plow company, of Elmira.

This action was the first against an incorporated trust that has attracted wide-spread attention. According to the evidence in the case, the trust was organized much as other trusts are by recourse to intimidation. The Clipper Chilled Plow company held out as long as it could, and only when told that the trust would make it impossible for it to do business. When having had about a month's experience, it decided to withdraw. The trust wanted to keep the Clipper company's valuable plants.

Judge Walter Lloyd Smith, of Elmira, before whom the case was tried, declared the trust an illegal organization, and gave a decision favorable to the Clipper company. The publicity given the case is exceedingly damaging to the business interest of the trust and its members. If the directors assembled in Buffalo do not decide to dissolve they will probably appeal from the decision of Judge Smith.

NEW YORK, Feb. 28.—The executive committee of the Republican league of the United States, have issued the official call for the fourth annual convention of the league. The convention is to be held in Cincinnati on April 21.

WEAPON OF DEATH.

COLUMBUS, O., Feb. 28.—The deadly hammerless revolver, with which William J. Elliott fired the shot that killed the innocent old man, Washington L. Hughes, and also wounded Albert C. Osborn in the chin Monday, was traced down by a dispatch reporter late yesterday afternoon. Information was received yesterday morning that a school boy had told that he had seen W. J. Elliott hand a revolver to a man in Duffy's saloon on West State street and that the man had taken the weapon away with him.

By inquiry on West State street a clew was secured. The clerks in the grocery store of Henry T. Linke, 49 West State street, said that a school boy by the name of Cliff Little, who lives at 269 West State street, had told a clerk that he had seen Elliott give a revolver to a man who was walking down State street with him, and the police ran toward the station house. The clerks also said that the man who was with Elliott and the policeman was AL. Laner; that Laner walked down State street to front with the officer and his prisoner, or a short distance beyond, when he turned and went back; that they spoke to him when he went back.

The reporter, armed with these facts, visited the boy's home, where the story was corroborated by his parents. The parents said the boy carried papers for the Capital, and was afraid to give information about the transfer of the revolver, as he was afraid Elliott would shoot him for telling. A visit was made to the front street public school building where Cliff is a pupil. After considerable questioning, the boy related the facts as above stated.

Being convinced that Laner was then the man who had Elliott's revolver the reporter set out to find him. Laner was found at the Casino theater. The reporter immediately gave Laner a distinct idea of the evidence against him, which pointed conclusively to the fact that he had taken W. J. Elliott's revolver. He was rather taken back when confronted with these facts, and asked where the reporter had received his information. Laner then admitted that he had the revolver; that when Elliott was placed under arrest he walked for some distance by his side; that Elliott whispered to him to take his revolver from his overcoat pocket; that he did not know then that Elliott had committed murder; that after taking the revolver he removed the shells, all of which were empty and threw them down at private vault, and that when the newspapers raised such a fuss about the missing revolver he made up his mind to turn it over to Prosecutor Hurling, expecting the Elliotts to have their preliminary hearing every day since the murder.

Laner in the evening Laner was arrested by Detective Pete Murphy and is now confined in the station house. Laner was formerly a base ball player and became somewhat associated with Elliott in this way when he was a stockholder in the Columbus club.

Judge Duncan ordered a special grand jury to be impaneled at once to investigate the Elliott murder. It will probably be called together Monday. Excitement still runs higher, but is allayed somewhat by the coroner's verdict, which is in accord with public sentiment.

RAILROAD WRECKS.

One Man Killed and Six Injured on the Erie Road Near Buffalo.

BUFFALO, Feb. 28.—A bad wreck occurred on the Erie road at East Buffalo yesterday evening, in which one man was killed and six others badly injured. The man who lost his life was John Botoneley, a brakeman. The two men who were most injured were Engineer Maloney, of the Erie, and Engineer Dietrich, of the Lehigh Valley. None of the passengers were hurt.

The accident was caused by a collision between the Lehigh Valley express train from New York, and a wild-cat freight on the Erie bound for Black Rock. Botoneley leaves a widow and one child, who reside here. James Ryan, an engineer of the Lehigh Valley, happened to be on Dietrich's engine at the time of the accident and was badly hurt. J. J. Manning, the fireman of the Lehigh Valley engine, was internally injured probably. Earl Veder, a helper on the Lehigh Valley engine, and W. S. Cain, an Erie fireman, was also hurt. Cain was the only one of the six injured men who was not perfectly helpless.
